

For Immediate Release
Contact: Brenda Bishop
461-0562

Quay County 4-Hers Win at State Conference

Fourteen Quay County 4-H members ventured to Las Cruces New Mexico to take part in the Annual 4-H State Conference where they were inspired to leave their footprint through inspirational talks and leadership workshops. While there they competed in many contests.

The Home Economics Bowl Team won the opportunity to represent New Mexico during the National Competition which will be held in Denver in January. They will begin studying the new material this month. Team members are Reagan Runyan, Trestin Peterson, Shaylee Moon, and Rebecca Rush.

Reagan Runyan was high point individual for the Home Economics Skill-a-thon Contest and the team placed 3rd with members Trestin Peterson, Tianna Peterson, Shaylee Moon and Reagan Runyan.

In other competitions, Quay County Land Judging Team 2 placed 4th with members Amber Rivera, Kaiden Jones, and Rebecca Rush. Quay County Land Judging Team 1 placed 3rd team members with members Trestin Peterson, Jonathan Clark, Kaleb Hayes and Jason Knight.

The Horticulture Team placed 4th with members Rebecca Rush, Trestin Peterson, Amber Rivera and Tianna Peterson.

The Quay County Livestock Skill-A-Thon Team 1 placed 3rd with members Kyle Knight, Kyle Hamilton, and Bailey Smith

The Quay County Meats Judging Team 1 placed 5th with members Kyle Knight, Kyle Hamilton, and Bailey Smith

The Range Team placed 3rd with members Kyle Knight, Kyle Hamilton, Kaiden Jones, and Bailey Smith